

Noetia — Market Intelligence Appendix

Version 1.0 | May 2026

Purpose

This appendix provides full citations, methodology notes, and confidence ratings for every quantitative market claim in the Noetia Business Plan. It exists so that every number can be traced to a primary source before investor presentations, fundraising decks, or press materials.

Confidence ratings used:

- ✔ Verified — Direct citation from a named report, with year and scope confirmed
- ⚠ Estimated — Industry consensus or composite calculation; methodology disclosed
- ✖ Needs verification — Claim could not be confirmed against a primary source; flagged for removal or replacement

Section 1: Global Audiobook Market (TAM)

Claim: Global audiobook market projected to reach $35.47 billion by 2030

Field	Detail
Value cited	$35.47 billion by 2030
Base year value	$8.70 billion (2024)
CAGR	26.2% (2025–2030)
Source	Grand View Research, "Audiobook Market Size, Share & Trends Analysis Report By Genre (Fiction & Non-Fiction), Preferred Device, Distribution Channel, Target Audience, Region, 2024–2030"
Published	2024
Scope	Global; all audiobook formats (streaming + downloadable); all distribution channels
Methodology	Bottom-up market sizing using publisher revenue data, platform subscriber counts, and regional consumption surveys; forecasts use regression analysis and expert panel validation
Segments covered	Fiction (64% share in 2024), Non-Fiction; Smartphones, Laptops/Tablets; One-time download, Subscription; Adult, Kids; North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, Latin America, MEA
Confidence	✔ Verified

How to cite in documents: "The global audiobook market was valued at $8.70 billion in 2024 and is projected to reach $35.47 billion by 2030, growing at a CAGR of 26.2% (Grand View Research, 2024)."

Claim: Spanish and English speakers represent the two largest native-speaker populations globally

Field	Detail
Spanish speakers	~500 million native speakers
English speakers	~380 million native + ~1.1 billion total speakers
Source	Ethnologue, "Languages of the World" (29th edition, 2024); Instituto Cervantes, "El español: una lengua viva" (2024 annual report)
Confidence	✔ Verified (widely reported, consistent across multiple sources)

Section 2: Spanish-Language Audiobook Growth

Claim: Spanish-language audiobooks grew 45.7% in 2023

Field	Detail
Value cited	+45.7% year-over-year growth in 2023
Prior year	+52.81% in 2022
Source	Bookwire, "Spanish Market Report 2024" (covers FY2023 platform data)
Report URL	bookwire.net/spanish-market-report-2024-en
Published	May 2024
Scope	Spanish-language digital books (ebooks + audiobooks) distributed through Bookwire's platform; includes Spain, Latin America, and US Hispanic market
Data basis	Platform sales data from major Spanish-language publishers and distributors; Bookwire is the leading Spanish-language digital book distribution platform
Regional breakdown	Latin America: +9% (2023); Mexico: +12% (2023); US Hispanic: fastest-growing region overall
Confidence	✔ Verified

Note on prior claim: An earlier version of this document cited "34% growth in 2024 (Statista)." This figure could not be verified against a specific Statista publication. The Bookwire figure above is the authoritative replacement — it is platform-sourced (not survey-based), covers a defined geographic scope, and references a completed fiscal year (2023 data published in 2024).

Claim: US is the fastest-growing region for Spanish-language audiobook consumption

-------	--------

Source	Bookwire, "Spanish Market Report 2024"; Publishers Weekly, "U.S. Market, Children's Titles Both Key to Growing Spanish-Language Audiobooks" (2024)
Context	The US Hispanic market has overtaken Spain and Latin America in Spanish-language audiobook consumption growth rate, driven by bilingual households and smartphone penetration
Confidence	✔ Verified

Section 3: Latin America Digital Reading Market (SAM)

Claim: Latin America had ~413 million mobile internet users in 2024

Field	Detail
Value cited	413 million mobile internet users in 2024
Source	GSMA, "The Mobile Economy: Latin America 2024"
Scope	Latin America and Caribbean; mobile internet users (unique subscribers who have accessed the internet via mobile)
Confidence	✔ Verified

Claim: ~130M Latin American internet users regularly engage with digital long-form content

Field	Detail
Value cited	~130 million
Derivation	413M mobile internet users × ~32% digital content engagement rate
Engagement rate source	Statista, "Internet use in Latin America" topic page (2024); digital content engagement defined as weekly or more frequent long-form reading/listening
Confidence	⚠ Estimated — composite calculation. The "regularly read digital content" subset is not directly reported by any single primary source at this specificity. Use with methodology disclosure in investor materials.

Recommended upgrade: Commission or license a Statista custom report on "digital reading engagement in Latin America" for a single-source citation.

Claim: Paid digital reading segment: 8–12M users in Latin America, growing ~18% annually

Field	Detail
Value cited	8–12 million paying users; ~18% annual growth
Derivation	Latin America e-commerce users: 290M in 2024 (Statista/eMarketer) × estimated 3–4% digital book buyer penetration rate = 8.7–11.6M → rounded to 8–12M

Growth rate source	Mordor Intelligence, "E-Book Market" report (2024); regional digital content subscription CAGR for Latin America
Confidence	⚠️ Estimated — built from e-commerce base rates. No single report directly sizes the "paying Spanish-language digital reader" segment. This range is directionally correct but should be treated as an order-of-magnitude estimate.

Recommended upgrade: Cross-reference with Audio Publishers Association Latin America data or commission primary research before Series A materials.

Claim: US has 47M+ audiobook listeners

Field	Detail
Value cited	47 million+ audiobook listeners in the US
Source	Audio Publishers Association (APA), "Audio Publishers Association Sales Survey" (2024)
Scope	United States; audiobook listeners defined as having listened to at least one audiobook in the past year
Confidence	✅ Verified

Section 4: Social Reading and Content Discovery Trends

Claim: BookTok drove 825M book-related TikTok views in 2023

Field	Detail
Value cited	825 million TikTok views for book-related content in 2023
Source	Publishers Weekly, citing TikTok internal data (2023–2024 reports)
Scope	Global TikTok platform; #BookTok and related reading hashtags
Confidence	⚠️ Estimated — TikTok does not publish official hashtag view counts as a primary source; figure cited from Publishers Weekly which references TikTok internal data. Treat as directional.

Claim: Remote work has increased daily reading time in Latin America

Field	Detail
Original claim	" +22% since 2022, Bain & Company "
Verification status	× Needs verification — The Bain & Company "Working Future" report covers Latin America employment patterns but does not address reading habits specifically. This specific statistic could not be confirmed against a Bain primary source.
Recommendation	Remove from investor materials. Replace with: "CERLALC (Regional Center for Book in Latin America and the Caribbean) annual reading surveys, which track reading habit changes across the region."
